Location

The house is located in the first row of the houses which overlook the fabulous Roquebrun river.

Roquebrun is a beautiful medieval village perched on the side of a hill overlooking the river which has its own beach area and water sports centre.

Cafe just a couple of minutes from the house, also a wine outlet and all amenities are available here.

Don't miss a meal at Le Petit Nice and try to book early and get a spot on the balcony overlooking the river - its a magical place for an evening meal!

Walking, hiking, cycling and kayaking adventures are on the doorstep.

A few kilometers away is the large rural market town of Cessenon situated half-way between the Cevennes mountain range and the Mediterranean sea (Valras-Plage at 30kms). The Farm Zoo park in Cessenon is a reserve with over 600 different species. Children can feed and touch the animals.

Water sports on the river - kayaking centre within walking distance.

Swimming in the river or just messing around on the beach (stoney).

Recommended restaurant - Le Petit Nice, overlooking the river. Great menu, good variety for kids and adults alike.

Walking, hiking, cycling and kayaking adventures are on the doorstep.

Le Jardin Mediterranee - botanical park at the top of the village, walking distance from the house.

Sandy beaches - Valras Plage 30kms
