Pezenas has one of the best Saturday markets in the region but if you miss this then there are plenty of others to choose from. Try Béziers on Friday morning - there is a fruit/vegetable/cheese/charcuterie market, a flower market, and a general textile market.

Activities and tourism in the surrounding areas:

Pézenas, the town of Molière, offers you a great choice of boutiques, restaurants, cafes, craft shops as well as, on every Saturday, its grand market. In high season, twice weekly, all the small shops stay open until midnight.

There are numerous tourist attractions and leisure activities within easy reach: the Cité de Carcassonne, Montpellier, Nîmes and its famous arenas, Aigues-Mortes, the Canal du Midi, the Lac du Salagou, the Port and the Canals of Sète, Saint-Guilhem-le-Désert, the Grotte des Demoiselles, the Grotte de Clamouse, Lamalou-les-Bains, the caves of the Wine producers, several golf courses, many festivals of music (Jazz festival at Sète, festival de la Cité), as well as wonderful walks, cycle rides, kayaking, canoeing and horse-riding.
