Location

The nearest airports are Bergerac (50km) and Bordeaux (80km). Bourdeilles, 3km from the chateau, is the former barony of Perigord featuring a medieval castle and Renaissance castle, both with impressive period furniture and décor.

Brantome (8km) is a stunning town reminiscent of Venice. The abbey is a highlight, with boat trips and canoeing among the favourite activities here. Périgueux (15km) is the art and culture capital of the Dordogne, with its cathedral, old town, museums and a fine gallo-roman museum.

Vineyards of Bergerac and Monbazillac with tours and tasting on offer are 30km from the chateau. Local markets can be found on Friday in Brantôme and on Wednesday/Saturday in Périgueux. Supermarkets/shops are available in Brantôme and Périgueux.

Local activities include tennis, canoeing and horse riding in Bourdeilles. Canoeing, cycling, climbing, boat trips, paragliding and hot-air ballooning are possible in Brantôme. There are excellent golf courses in Périgueux.
