Description

Stunning Villa sur la Plage has its own garden gate leading directly down to a pretty sandy beach in Cavalaire Sur Mer, a family-friendly village close to the stylish South of France resort of St. Tropez.

Surrounded by a nature reserve and with uninterrupted sea views from its spacious terraces, this superbly restored Edwardian villa has its own heated swimming pool and five double bedrooms - all air conditioned - making it a dream location for an extended family or group of friends. The villa offers a haven of peace and quiet with almost no overlooking from other properties.

You are so close to 'Bon Porteau' beach you can be swimming in the Mediterranean within minutes of rolling out of bed. Or you can dive into the salt-cleaned tiled pool before breakfasting on the terrace with one of the finest views on the Riviera. From the terraces as you enjoy your morning post-swim breakfast, you will discover here are no other buildings in sight - only the beach, the hills, small boats, and a distant lighthouse.

Stunning Villa sur la Plage appears and 'feels' isolated but it is, in fact, just a short walk to the shops and restaurants of Cavalaire. Fashionable St Tropez and the pretty hilltop villages of Gassin and Grimaud are a short drive away.

Cavalaire is renowned for scuba-diving and sailing and a modern marina offers boat and yacht hire. Tennis clubs, equestrian centres and golf courses are nearby. There are also hiking trails and cycle tracks.

Outdoor restaurants abound, from the famous Club Cinq en Cinq on Pampelonne beach outside St Tropez to simple summer 'pop ups' serving pots of moules marinières and locally-caught fish. Wine lovers can buy direct from vineyards such as Chateau Chausse and Chateau Minuty.

Cavalaire is also ideally situated for exploring the beautiful hinterland of Provence including Aix-en-Provence, the Maures Massif and the Grand Canyon of Verdon. There are daily ferry trips from Cavalaire to the protected islands of Levant, Porquerolles and Port-Cros.

Many guests rarely stray far from this luxurious French villa, enjoying the heated pool, boules pitch and table tennis or walking down the short path to the beach, then swimming round the rocks to the nearby coves.

Children are especially welcome. The pool has an electrically powered safety cover and is enclosed by safety standard high railings with child-proof locks on all three gates. And there are cots, high chairs,
