

Le Pommier

Region: Languedoc | Poilhes

Sleeps: 6 Bedrooms: 4 Bathrooms: 2

Description

This lovely single story villa is located in Poilhes, one of the most picturesque villages of the area located on the Canal du Midi halfway between Narbonne and Beziers.

The property has been meticulously renovated and extended.

You will find a lounge/diner L-shaped with exposed beams, superb open fireplace, a fully-fitted kitchen and study/4th bedroom with sofa bed and attached workshop storage room.

Full air conditioning.

OUTSIDE

The grounds are entirely private and cover some 3000m² with the front reaching down to the water's edge of the famous Canal du Midi.

The outside is possibly even more attractive than the inside with delightful gardens mainly laid as lawn and with many mature pine and fruit trees, palm trees and hedgerows lining the borders. The lawn is green even in high summer - a very unusual feature under the sunny Mediterranean skies.

A superb mosaic tiled swimming pool 4m x 8m takes centre stage, just a few steps away from the two covered terraces, just in front of the villa.

The summer kitchen is situated beside the pretty apple tree from whence the villa is named. Here you will find a pizza oven and gas hob.

There is a separate comfy seating area under a constructed pergola. You will also find a hammock for whiling away those hot afternoons.

Overview

Outstanding villa with private pool and extensive, lush gardens. Edge of thriving village and located right beside the famous Canal du Midi. A haven of tranquillity with restaurants etc within walking distance. Le Pommier comfortably accommodates up to 8 people in 3/4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. Air conditioned throughout. Nearest beaches 25 minutes drive. Pet-friendly. FLEXIBLE START DATES, 7 nights minimum.

Location

This traditional and spacious villa is located just a couple of minutes from the centre of one of the Languedoc's most beautiful villages, Poilhes, and the Canal du Midi which runs through the village.

Poilhes has a couple of restaurants (don't miss Les Platanes which was featured on Rick Stein's BBC2 series) and there is a much larger selection in the neighbouring village of Capestang, and the city of Béziers is only 10 minutes away.

There is a new wine bar opened in Poilhes which is causing a lot of interest locally - its called Vinauberge . There is a Tapas Bar and wine tastings, a great place for a lazy afternoon by the banks of the Canal du Midi!

If you are feeling energetic, there is a free municipal tennis court just a couple of minutes walk away from the house.

This is the ideal location to provide a relaxing holiday base, whilst being within easy reach of local attractions and activities. The Mediterranean coast is 15/20 minutes drive, Montpellier, the thriving capital of the Languedoc with its international airport is 45 minutes away by car.

One of the most diverse regions of France, the Languedoc offers mountains, lakes, rivers and beautiful stretches of coastline; major towns and fairytale citadels. Languedoc is one of the most prolific wine-producing areas of France and a happy afternoon can be spent touring the many vineyards and tasting the local produce.

Budget airlines fly regularly to Montpellier, Perpignan, Nimes, Carcassonne and Girona. Spain, Andorra and the Pyrenees are within easy reach. By rail, the TGV operates from Lille to Béziers or Agde. Eurostar has a non-stop service from Waterloo to Avignon (July to September).

- Superb, child friendly beaches within a 20 minute drive, all with waterside restaurants and cafés.

- Béziers (10 minutes), historic town and capital of wine producing and rugby.

Especially vibrant in August and during its famous Féria. Perhaps the best flower market in the whole of the south on Fridays in the beautiful tree-lined main boulevard.

- Canal du Midi which links the Atlantic with the Mediterranean, miles of flat walks along the shady tow-paths. A choice of boat excursions can be taken.

- Carcassonne castle is well worth a visit, especially on jousting days!

- Roque Haute - outskirts of Portiragnes. Superb botanical reserve.

- Golf courses nearby at Béziers and Cap d'Agde

- Funfair at Vias Plage (July and August)

- Bassin de Thau - a calm inland sea teeming with fish. A breeding place for oysters and shellfish, producing over half the oysters consumed in France. Villages, such as Bouzigues and Meze, have many restaurants serving sumptuous platters of fresh shellfish.

- Haut-Languedoc Regional Nature Park - gorges, Lac de Salagou, a very beautiful area only 30 minutes drive away, with its stunning gorges and superb walking, hiking, river rafting, watersports and carp fishing.

- Roquebrun (called "Little Nice") with its Mediterranean garden with over 400 species

- Pézenas - City of Molière with an exceptional architectural heritage. Numerous arts and crafts artists with workshops open to the public. Large market every Saturday.

- Spain - an hour's drive to the border.

- Barcelona - approximately 3 hours' drive
